

DRAFT AGENDA
Advanced Technological Education Outreach Session

9:00-11:00 a.m.

April 14, 2009

Manchester Grand Hyatt – Annie Room

9:00 Session Orientation and Welcome

- Louise Yarnall, SRI International
 - Purpose of the session
- Karen Marrongelle, Program Officer, National Science Foundation
 - About the ATE Program
 - NSF's interest in ATE research
- Elaine Craft, Director, SC ATE Center of Excellence
 - Research in the context of community college settings

9:15 The DECA Project: Discovering the Educational Consequences of ATE

- Liesel Ritchie, University of Colorado
 - Brief overview of the DECA Project
 - Discuss white paper content/conclusions

9:30 DECA Project X: Assessing and Improving the Sustainability of ATE-Supported Projects and Centers

- Wayne Welch, University of Minnesota, Retired
 - Brief project summary

9:40 Research in Advanced Technological Education

- Louise Yarnall, SRI
 - Overview of literature review and “state of the research” related to ATE

10:00 Bridging the Gap from Practice to Research

- Frances Lawrenz, University of Minnesota
- Nick Smith, Syracuse University
- Chris Dede, Harvard University

10:15 Facilitated Discussion

- Louise Yarnall and Liesel Ritchie
 - Research related questions
 - Addressing the “gaps”: Tapping audience perspectives on ATE research

10:55 Wrap Up and Next Steps

- Louise Yarnall
 - Webinars in the coming year to build communities around research interests

11:00 Adjourn